☐ The condition report has been provided.

☒ The condition report will be provided to the renter on or before the date the agreement starts.

PART C—SAFETY-RELATED ACTIVITIES

14. Electrical safety checks

- (a) The rental provider must ensure an electrical safety check of all electrical installations, appliances and fittings provided by a rental provider in the rented premises is conducted every 2 years by a licensed or registered electrician and must provide the renter with the date of the most recent safety check, in writing, on request of the renter.
- (b) If an electrical safety check of the rented premises has not been conducted within the last 2 years at the time the renter occupies the premises, the rental provider must arrange an electrical safety check as soon as practicable.

15. Gas safety activities

This safety-related activity only applies if the rented premises contains any appliances, fixtures or fittings which use or supply gas.

- (a) The rental provider must ensure that a gas safety check of all gas installations and fittings in the rented premises is conducted every 2 years by a licensed or registered gasfitter and must provide the renter with the date of the most recent safety check, in writing, on request of the renter.
- (b) If a gas safety check has not been conducted within the last 2 years at the time the renter occupies the premises, the rental provider must arrange a gas safety check as soon as practicable.

16. Smoke alarm safety activities

- (a) The rental provider must ensure that—
  - (i) any smoke alarm is correctly installed and in working condition; and
  - (ii) any smoke alarm is tested according to the manufacturer's instructions at least once every 12 months; and
  - (iii) the batteries in each smoke alarm are replaced as required.
- (b) The rental provider must immediately arrange for a smoke alarm to be repaired or replaced as an urgent repair if they are notified by the renter that it is not in working order.

Note: Repair or replacement of a hard-wired smoke alarm must be undertaken by a suitably qualified person.

- (c) The rental provider, on or before the commencement of the agreement, must provide the renter with the following information in writing—
  - (i) information about how each smoke alarm in the rented premises operates;
  - (ii) information about how to test each smoke alarm in the rented premises;
  - (iii) information about the renter's obligations to not tamper with any smoke alarms and to report if a smoke alarm in the rented premises is not in working order.
- (d) The renter must give written notice to the rental provider as soon as practicable after becoming aware that a smoke alarm in the rented premises is not in working order.

Note: Regulations made under the Building Act 1993 require smoke alarms to be installed in all residential buildings.

17. Swimming pool barrier safety activities

These safety-related activities only apply if the rented premises contains a swimming pool.

- (a) The rental provider must ensure that the swimming pool barrier is maintained in good repair.
- (b) The renter must give written notice to the rental provider as soon as practicable after becoming aware that the swimming pool barrier is not in working order.
- (c) The rental provider must arrange for a swimming pool barrier to be immediately repaired or replaced as an urgent repair if they are notified by the renter that it is not in working order.
- (d) The rental provider must provide the renter with a copy of the most recent certificate of swimming pool barrier compliance issued under the Building Act 1993 on the request of the renter.

18. Relocatable swimming pool safety activities

These safety-related activities only apply if a relocatable swimming pool is erected, or is intended to be erected, on the rented premises.

- (a) The renter must not erect a relocatable swimming pool without giving written notice to the rental provider before erecting the pool.
- (b) The renter must obtain any necessary approvals before erecting a relocatable swimming pool.

Note: Regulations made under Building Act 1993 apply to any person erecting a relocatable swimming pool.

This safety-related activity only applies to swimming pools or spas that hold water deeper than 300 mm.

19. Bushfire prone area activities

This safety-related activity only applies if the rented premises is in a bushfire prone area and is required to have a water tank for bushfire safety.

If the rented premises is in a designated bushfire prone area under section 192A of the Building Act 1993 and a water tank is required for firefighting purposes, the rental provider must ensure the water tank and any connected infrastructure is maintained in good repair as required.

The water tank must be full and clean at the commencement of the agreement.

PART D—RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

This is a summary of selected rights and obligations of renters and rental providers under the Act.

Any reference to VCAT refers to the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

For more information, visit consumer.vic.gov.au/renting.

20. Use of the premises

The renter—

- is entitled to quiet enjoyment of the premises. The rental provider may only enter the premises in accordance with the Act; and
- must not use the premises for illegal purposes; and
- must not cause a nuisance or interfere with the reasonable peace, comfort or privacy of neighbours; and
- must avoid damaging the premises and common areas. Common areas include hallways, driveways, gardens and stairwells. Where damage occurs, the renter must notify the rental provider in writing; and
- must keep the premises reasonably clean.

21. Condition of the premises

The rental provider—

- must ensure that the premises comply with the rental minimum standards, and is vacant and reasonably clean when the renter moves in; and
- must maintain the premises in good repair and in a fit condition for occupation; and
- agrees to do all the safety-related maintenance and repair activities set out in Part C of the Agreement.

The renter must follow all safety-related activities set out in Part C of the agreement and not remove, deactivate or otherwise interfere with the operation of prescribed safety devices on the premises.

22. Modifications

The renter—

- may make some modifications without seeking the rental provider's consent. These modifications are listed on the Consumer Affairs Victoria website; and
- must seek the rental provider's consent before installing any other fixtures or additions; and
- may apply to VCAT if they believe that the rental provider has unreasonably refused consent for a modification mentioned in the Act; and
- at the end of the agreement, must restore the premises to the condition it was in before they moved in (excluding fair wear and tear). This includes removing all modifications, unless the parties agree they do not need to be removed.

The rental provider must not unreasonably refuse consent for certain modifications.

A list of the modifications that the rental provider cannot unreasonably refuse consent for is available on the Consumer Affairs Victoria website consumer.vic.gov.au/renting.

23. Locks

The rental provider must ensure the premises—

- has locks to secure all windows capable of having a lock; and
- has deadlocks (a deadlock is a deadlatch with at least one cylinder) for external doors that are able to be secured with a functioning deadlock; and
- meets the rental minimum standards for locks and window locks.

External doors which are not able to be secured with a functioning deadlock must at least be fitted with a locking device that—

- is operated by a key from the outside; and
- may be unlocked from the inside with or without a key.

The renter must obtain consent from the rental provider to change a lock in the master key system.

The rental provider must not unreasonably refuse consent for a renter seeking to change a lock in the master key system.

The rental provider must not give a key to a person excluded from the premises under—

- a family violence intervention order; or
- a family violence safety notice; or
- a recognised non-local DVO; or
- a personal safety intervention order.

24. Repairs

Only a suitably qualified person may do repairs—both urgent and non-urgent.

25. Urgent repairs

Section 3(1) of the Act defines urgent repairs. Refer to the Consumer Affairs Victoria website for the full list of urgent repairs and for more information, visit consumer.vic.gov.au/urgentrepairs.

Urgent repairs include failure or breakdown of any essential service or appliance provided for hot water, cooking, heating or laundering supplied by the rental provider.

The rental provider must carry out urgent repairs after being notified. A renter may arrange for urgent repairs to be done if the renter has taken reasonable steps to arrange for the rental provider to immediately do the repairs and the rental provider has not carried out the repairs.

If the renter has arranged for urgent repairs, the renter may be reimbursed directly by the rental provider for the reasonable cost of repairs up to $2500.

The renter may apply to VCAT for an order requiring the rental provider to carry out urgent repairs if—

- (a) the renter cannot meet the cost of the repairs; or
- (b) the cost of repairs is more than $2500; or
- (c) the rental provider refuses to pay the cost of repairs if it is carried out by the renter.

26. Non-urgent repairs

The renter must notify the rental provider, in writing, as soon as practicable of—

- damage to the premises; and

- a breakdown of facilities, fixtures, furniture or equipment supplied by the rental provider.

The rental provider must carry out non-urgent repairs in a reasonable time.

The renter may apply to VCAT for an order requiring the rental provider to do the repairs if the rental provider has not carried out the repairs within 14 days of receiving notice of the need for repair.

27. Assignment or sub-letting

The renter must not assign (transfer to another person) or sub-let the whole or any part of the premises without the written consent of the rental provider. The rental provider may give the renter notice to vacate if the renter assigns or sub-lets the premises without consent.

The rental provider—

- cannot unreasonably withhold consent to assign or sub-let the premises; and
- must not demand or receive a fee or payment for consent, other than any reasonable expenses incurred by the assignment.

28. Rent

The rental provider must give the renter at least 60 days written notice of a proposed rent increase.

The rent cannot be increased more than once every 12 months.

The rental provider must not increase the rent under a fixed term agreement unless the agreement provides for an increase by specifying the amount of increase or the method of calculating the rent increase.

29. Access and entry

The rental provider may enter the premises—

- at any time, if the renter has agreed within the last 7 days; and
- to do an inspection, but not more than once every 6 months; and
- to comply with the rental provider's duties under the Act; and
- to show the premises or conduct an open inspection to sell, rent or value the premises; and
- to take images or video for advertising a property that is for sale or rent; and
- if they believe the renter has failed to follow their duties under the Act; and
- to do a pre-termination inspection where the renter has applied to have the agreement terminated because of family violence or personal violence.

The renter must allow entry to the premises where the rental provider has followed proper procedure.

The renter is entitled to a set amount of compensation for each sales inspection.

30. Pets

The renter must seek consent from the rental provider before keeping a pet on the premises.

The rental provider must not unreasonably refuse a request to keep a pet.

PART E—ADDITIONAL TERMS

31. Additional terms (if any)

List any additional terms to this agreement. The terms listed must not exclude, restrict or modify any of the rights and duties included in the Act.

Additional terms must also comply with the Australian Consumer Law (Victoria). For example, they cannot be unfair terms, which will have no effect. Contact Consumer Affairs Victoria on 1300 558 181 for further information or visit consumer.vic.gov.au/products-and-services/business-practices/contracts/unfair-contract-terms.

- a. The Renter hereby acknowledges that the premises primary use is for residential purposes. The premises must not be used for purposes other than for residential purposes without the written consent of the Residential Rental Provider.
- b. The Renter agrees that they are prohibited to lease/rent the whole or any part of the premises for any short stay accommodation purposes. The entire premises has been leased for the exclusive residential possession of the Renter/s named in this Agreement, and as such, no part of the rented premises may be leased to, or occupied by, any other person/s without the Residential Rental Provider's written permission. Renters are strictly prohibited to enter into a licence agreement with any other party, or allow short or long term guests to reside in the premises, including, but not limited to companies such as Airbnb, Roomorama and Couchsurfing.
- c. The Renter acknowledges that the Residential Rental Provider's insurance policies will not provide insurance cover for any of the Renters possessions.
- d. The Renter shall pay all charges in respect of the re-connection and consumption of water, electricity, gas, oil, internet and telephone connections where the rented premises is separately metered for these services. Furthermore, it is the Renter's responsibility to arrange meter readings to be taken when they enter into occupation of the premises and again when they vacate the premises. Failure to do so may result in charges for dates outside of their Rental period.
- e. The Renter agrees to observe and be bound by the Rules of the Owners Corporation Regulations. (if applicable)
- f. Renters may not throw, place, drop, or allow to fall any article or substance from or out of the rented premises and shall not place any article or substance on any sill, balcony, terrace, or ledge or other similar part of the rented premises.
- g. Renters may not permit an excess number of people and objects on a deck or balcony, which is likely to exceed the load that the deck or balcony was designed to hold. The balcony and decking areas must be kept in a reasonably clean manner at all times.
- h. A Renter must not keep a pet without the Rental Provider consent. The rental provider may apply to VCAT for an order to exclude the pet from the property. If VCAT makes an order to refuse or exclude a pet from the property and the renter does not comply with the order within 14 days after it takes effect, then the rental provider may give a 28-day notice to vacate the premises.
- i. The Renter must not tamper with, cover or remove safety related appliances at any time. If the Renter becomes aware that any safety related appliances is not in proper working order, the Renter is required to notify the Agent immediately.
- j. The Renter shall at the Renter's expense replace all consumable items such as lighting tubes, globes and down-lights to the premises which become defective during the term of the Rental.
- k. The Renter shall not hang out any clothes outside the premises other than where provision for the hanging clothes has been provided.

- l. The Renter acknowledges that the exterior of the premises must be kept in a reasonably clean condition. This includes patio, garden areas and any nature strip, which requires regular mowing and edging of lawns, weeding of garden beds, cleaning and removal of clippings and leaves, and adequate watering of all plants and grass areas.
- m. The Renter hereby acknowledges and agrees to keep unobstructed and regularly clean accessible filters and vents at the property. This includes, but is not limited to, exhaust fans, return air vents, ducted heating and cooling, split system air conditioner filters and range hood filters. Such items must be kept in a reasonably clean condition to avoid clogging and building up grime and/or dust, and to avoid potential fire hazards.
- n. The Renter shall suitably ventilate the premises to avoid the presence and/or build-up of mould and condensation. Any mould should be cleaned and treated with an appropriate cleaning agents, and the renter must immediately advise the Agent.
- o. The Residential Rental Provider acknowledges the Renter's right to change the locks on the premises providing a duplicate is supplied to the Agent. The Renter has the right to change the alarm code on the premises providing the Agent is immediately advised of the new alarm code.
- p. The Renter is responsible for the replacement of any lost keys, auto remote controls and the provision of additional keys and any locksmith's charges where keys are mislaid or lost. The Agent does not guarantee that spare keys for the property are available. Misplaced or lost keys may require a locksmith to assist Renters back into their rental property at the Renters cost.
- q. The Renter understands and accepts the Agent will conduct routine inspections in accordance with the provisions of The Act. Digital photographs/video of the property may be taken to provide the owner with a visual record of the property as required.
- r. The Renter hereby acknowledges that the rental provider has requested that the interior of the premises is strictly non-smoking. The Renter will be held responsible for resultant smoke damage to the premises.
- s. The Renter hereby acknowledges that the Agent will provide phone and email contact details to maintenance contractors and suppliers throughout the Rental period to facilitate access to the property and to enable the Residential Rental Provider to carry out their duties under The Act.
- t. If the Renter wishes to vacate the premises on or after the expiration of this Agreement, the Renter shall give the Residential Rental Provider/Agent written notice of the Renter's intention to vacate 28 days prior.
- u. The Renter must not use bond as rent. The Renter acknowledges that they may be liable to a penalty of 60 penalty units (eg.$165.22 per unit as at 1/7/20 – 31/6/21, being $9913.20)
- v. If the Renter wishes to vacate the property prior to the expiration of the Fixed Term of this agreement, 'lease break' fees will be applied on a basis that is proportionate to the actual costs of securing a new renter: It is further agreed that the Bond will be held by the RTBA until such time as the premises has been re-let, these costs are paid by the Renter, the Renter agrees to deduct these costs from the Bond or following an application to VCAT.

The renter will be required to pay the following 'lease break' fees:

- Rent until a suitable replacement renter commences or the expiration of the lease, and;
- Advertising & board costs associated with the re-letting, calculated on a pro-rata basis based on the balance of the lease term (inc GST), and;
- Letting fees, calculated on a pro rata basis based on the balance of the lease term (inc GST) and;
- Costs relating to database verification on applicants, and;
- Costs to maintain lawns, gardens and any other services required to keep the property in a reasonably clean condition.
